INSTRUCTIONS TO PREPARER

Include changes in accounting principles, changes in accounting estimates, changes to or within the reporting entity, and error corrections in previously issued financial statements as defined at {BARS XXX Link}. See the Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Codification of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting Standards (Cod.) Section (Sec.) 2250—Additional Financial Reporting Considerations for more details.

For all accounting changes and error corrections, the note disclosure should include:

- a. A narrative description, specific details are included with each category below
- b. Tabular format that reconciles beginning balances as previously reported to beginning balances as adjusted or restated for each reporting unit for each accounting change and/or error correction

Specific narrative requirements for each accounting change and/or error correction are listed below:

Change in accounting principle:

- a. The nature of the change including:
  - i. Identification of the financial statement line item affected
  - ii. Identification of the new pronouncement implemented
- b. The reason for the change; if not because of the implementation of a new pronouncement, include an explanation of why the new accounting principle is preferable

Change in accounting estimate:

- a. The nature of the change, including the identification of the line items affected
- b. The reason for the change to an input, if applicable, unless the change in measurement is required by a GASB pronouncement.
