Citizen Hotline Confidentiality Waiver

In accordance with state law (RCW 43.09.186), the identity of an individual submitting a Hotline report is confidential until the completion of the investigation, unless the person submitting the concern agrees to waive his/her confidentiality.

By waiving confidentiality, I understand that my identity may be disclosed by the Washington State Auditor's Office, including during the course of the investigation or in response to public disclosure requests for records that are not otherwise exempt under the public disclosure act. I agree to hold harmless the Washington State Auditor's Office for any consequences of the release of my identity.

I hereby agree to waive my confidentiality in relation to the concern I submitted to the Washington State Auditor's Citizen Hotline:
